

H&R Block, Inc. Voluntary Report of Fiscal 2017 Political Contributions

As provided in the H&R Block, Inc. Political Activities Policy (“Policy”), H&R Block, Inc. (“H&R Block”) is providing its voluntary disclosure of political contributions for fiscal year 2017. As described in the Policy, included in this report are: (i) political contributions or expenditures made by H&R Block that are otherwise required by law to be reported by us or the recipient to governmental agencies; and (ii) the portion of H&R Block’s payments to trade associations to which we pay material annual dues and entities organized under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code to which we make material payments in a given fiscal year, in each case if such dues or payments are used for federal lobbying or political purposes and are non-deductible under section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that information is disclosed to H&R Block by the recipient. For purposes of the disclosure, “material” is defined as an amount equal to or greater than $50,000.

Additional information regarding the Policy and contributions made by BlockPAC, a political action committee voluntarily funded by some of our employees and directors, is available via the links included at the end of this report under the heading “Additional Information.”
