

H&R Block enters exclusive partnership with Walmart

January 16, 2018

Presence on Walmart shelves, website increases taxpayer access to best value in DIY tax prep

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 16, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- H&R Block (NYSE:HRB) and Walmart (NYSE:WMT) announced Jan. 16 that H&R Block will be the new, exclusive DIY desktop tax software provider available at Walmart stores nationwide, and sold directly by Walmart on walmart.com. This exclusive retail partnership brings the value, innovation and support of H&R Block DIY desktop software products to the world's largest retailer, making the DIY products even more convenient for clients to purchase, and ultimately prepare their taxes and get their maximum tax refund.

"At H&R Block, we give our clients the flexibility to prepare their taxes however they want, which includes offering them the products they want where they shop," said Heather Watts, senior vice president and general manager of digital at H&R Block. "Walmart shoppers expect to get the best value possible, and in this partnership with Walmart, H&R Block desktop software is committed to meeting customers' tax prep needs."

Among the key product enhancements for this year's desktop software products is the addition of "drag and drop," which easily imports tax information from any source, including last year's tax return from other tax prep services. While new features like drag and drop save customers time by seamlessly prepopulating information on their tax return, H&R Block also remains committed to saving its clients money with unbeatable value.

In addition to the maximum refund, 100 percent accuracy and 100 percent satisfaction guarantees that come standard for all H&R Block DIY tax software clients, these are among the other benefits that make H&R Block products the best value in desktop tax software:

H&R Block enters exclusive partnership with Walmart

- Competitively priced products when compared to top competitors
 - Free In-Person Audit Representation from an H&R Block tax pro (some competitors charge $49.99)
 - Unlimited free tax advice via live chat (some competitors charge $19.99)
- Up to five federal returns can be filed for free, making it an economic choice to share with family and friends
- Tax Identity Care™ can help better protect clients from tax identity theft with H&R Block's exclusive prevention and restorative services, and for only $14.99 it can be added by all DIY clients.

"In addition to better prices, the value H&R Block can offer Walmart shoppers with our support features, such as free in-person audit representation and unlimited free tax advice, is among the many reasons we are so pleased to expand our partnership with Walmart this year," Watts said.

H&R Block DIY desktop software can be purchased in stores nationwide at Walmart, Walmart Neighborhood Market and online at walmart.com. Regardless of where they purchase, customers can conveniently choose to install with a CD or download directly to their PC or Mac.
