KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 27, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Block Advisors by H&R Block and The Home Depot, the world's largest home improvement retailer, have collaborated for the 2025 tax season to help hardworking Pro customers offload stressful administrative business tasks. This robust collaboration offers significant benefits to Pro Xtra members, such as discounted services, including tax preparation, empowering them to focus on growing their business.

"Our initiative with The Home Depot helps Pro Xtra members navigate the complexities of running a business, such as taxes and bookkeeping," says Jamil Khan, Chief Small Business Officer at H&R Block. "Having experts that understand the tax codes relevant to the industry helps Pro Xtra members keep more of their hard-earned money."

The service launched earlier this month ahead of the fast-approaching April 15 tax filing deadline. Block Advisors is backed by 70 years of H&R Block expertise and has category-specific knowledge to help Pro Xtra members lower their tax liability.
