

ADDING MULTIMEDIA H&R Block's TaxCut Software Heads into the Tax Season with Kingston USB Flash Drive

January 30, 2007 1:55 PM ET

KANSAS CITY, Mo. & FOUNTAIN VALLEY, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 30, 2007--For the second year in a row, H&R Block(R) (NYSE: HRB), the world's largest tax services provider, and Kingston Technology Company, Inc., the independent world leader in memory products, are delivering tax software on a customized Kingston(R) 256MB DataTraveler(R) USB Flash drive.

This innovative concept of delivering TaxCut Premium Federal + State 2006 on a USB drive gives taxpayers a convenient, portable and solid value for their tax preparation. Offered at $39.99, the software and USB drive combo is available now at major electronics and office supplies stores, plus mass retailers throughout the U.S.

"H&R Block long ago established itself as the leader in helping customers with their tax preparation solutions every year," stated Derek Swords, software product director at H&R Block. "And, now we're the first in the industry to offer our innovative and consumer-friendly tax software on a USB drive. TaxCut Premium Federal + State software includes all the tools necessary to prepare simple and complex returns - including those for small businesses filing more complicated returns. TaxCut Premium Federal + State also offers guidance to help customers maximize deductions, report investment income and maximize business tax savings," Sword continued. "Once their taxes are completed, customers can use the Kingston DataTraveler as a portable storage drive for photographs, music and documents."

"It's a vote of confidence for Kingston's custom content-on-card program to work with H&R Block again this year," said Rick Webb, director, consumer market group, Kingston. "Our experience and heritage in memory products has earned the trust of major companies such as H&R Block. We feel certain this campaign will be a huge win for the consumer."

The 256MB DataTraveler USB drive customized with the H&R Block logo, both PC and Mac compatible, is ideal for home, business and school use. Simply connect the drive to an available USB port on a computer, laptop or other device. The TaxCut software icon appears; double click and follow the installation instructions.
