Re-Affirms FY02 Earnings Guidance

Reporting interim results for the current tax season, H&R Block Inc. (NYSE: HRB) said tax preparation and related fees from its tax businesses are up 10.6 percent through March 31. The company remains on track to meet expectations set by its previously announced guidance for revenue and earnings.

H&R Block has served 14.9 million clients for the current tax season through March 31, an increase of 2.5 percent compared to the same period last year. The company reported $1.6 billion in fees from tax preparation and related services. The average fee per client served rose 8.9 percent to $118.50.

"We're pleased that our results through the end of March remain on track. Current filing trends suggest that our tax businesses will meet their previously announced revenue and earnings goals for the full year," said Mark A. Ernst, president and chief executive officer. "This year, the latter half of March included three Sundays, one of which was Easter. This left us with fewer active client days than in the comparable period last year. That's why our revenues in the last 15 days of March were lower than our full season trend," Ernst said.

On May 1, the company plans to announce preliminary results for the tax season through April 16. Fiscal 2002 fourth quarter and year-end results are scheduled to be announced June 12.

Through March 31, tax professionals in H&R Block offices prepared 13.6 million returns, an increase of 3 percent. During this period, H&R Block filed 13.2 million federal returns electronically, representing a 6.7 percent increase over the prior year. So far this tax season, 88.5 percent of returns processed by the company were filed electronically.

When H&R Block announced its third quarter earnings Feb. 27, the company said it expected its fiscal year earnings to be in the range of $2.20-to-$2.30 per share, an increase of 45-to-50 percent over last year's earnings. The company said it expected overall revenue growth to be within a target range of 10-to-15 percent for the year.
