State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Registrant's subsidiary, Option One Mortgage Corporation (OOMC), is engaged in the sub-prime mortgage business. In light of recent developments in the sub-prime mortgage market, Registrant has undertaken a rigorous review process this period to address the potential ramifications of those developments for the Registrant. In connection with this process, Registrant has been undertaking a specific review of the fair value as of January 31, 2007 of OOMC's obligations under its warehouse facilities. Due to the amount of time and complexity involved in this review, the Registrant has not completed this analysis. Accordingly, Registrant was unable to timely file its current report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended January 31, 2007. The Registrant expects to be able to complete this analysis, and file its Form 10-Q, no later than March 19, 2007.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

o No Yes

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

As reported in the preliminary release of Registrant’s earnings on February 22, 2007, Registrant reported a net loss for the third quarter of fiscal year 2007 of $44.7 million or 14 cents per share, compared with net earnings of $12.1 million, or 4 cents per share, for the third quarter of fiscal year 2006. Due to recent market conditions resulting in significant declines in the value of mortgage loans, including the value of non-performing loans, Registrant modified its cash flow models during the quarter ended January 31, 2007, to include a detailed evaluation of the underlying collateral as of the call date. Due to rapidly declining loan values in the current environment, that evaluation resulted in significantly lower modeled cash flows, and a corresponding increase to impairment of residual interests for the quarter ending January 31, 2007 equal to approximately $29 million pretax, which was recorded after the preliminary release of Registrant’s earnings on February 22, 2007.

o No Yes

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.
