FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Breeden Partners Comments on H&R Block's Decision to De-Stagger its Board

Greenwich, CT., August 13, 2007. Breeden Capital Management LLC, a Greenwich, CT., based investment fund manager, issued the following statement today from Richard C. Breeden, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Breeden Capital Management LLC.

“We have been advocating for months that H&R Block adopt majority voting on an annual basis for all directors to improve Board accountability. We are pleased that the Company has elected to adopt a portion of our suggestion, and look forward to persuading the Board to adopt the rest of our many suggestions, following our election to the Board. It is unfortunate it took this long for management and the Board to realize that entrenchment devices like staggered boards do not serve the interests of shareholders.”

About Breeden Partners, LP

Breeden Partners is a private investment partnership that was formed for purposes of investing in companies that are underperforming in terms of earnings and share price. Breeden Partners invests solely in the equity securities of publicly traded companies headquartered in the United States or Canada, and it does not use either leverage or derivatives. Breeden Partners' governing policies also prohibit it from taking a majority equity interest in any portfolio company.

Breeden Partners seeks to invest in companies with strong cash flows and underlying asset values where it can be a catalyst for change that will enhance market value. Breeden Partners seeks to maximize returns by persuading portfolio companies to adopt new strategies to increase earnings and rates of return, improve capital allocation, strengthen accountability for performance, enhance transparency and adopt healthier governance practices, among other things. Breeden Partners believes that implementing improved management and governance practices will help portfolio companies achieve higher earnings and command a higher multiple on such earnings in the marketplace.
